ADVANTAGES TO ADVERTISERS.

PETTINGELL & CO.'S ADVERTISING AGENCY

no time, trouble and expense are saved the advertiser.

First—By selecting papers of the largest circulation, and best adapted to the business of the advertiser.

Second—By making out the price of the advertisement for any length of time before sending it, so that the advertiser will know the exact amount of his bill when due.

Third—By seeing that each advertisement is inserted in the number stipulated, and sent promptly.

Fourth—By sending the advertiser one copy of each paper containing the advertisement, and each paper can be seen at any time at their office, No. 122 Nassau-st.

Fifth—The bills are settled with the Agents; and their receipts are regarded as payment by the publishers, and an account is kept only with them.

Sixth—The Agents give their personal attention to the correctness or addition to the foregoing list, should it be sent as soon as possible.
